ABOUT ME

Marketing professional who figures things out independently and ships quality work. Fluent in AI tools not as a crutch, but as a force multiplier for research, content production, and performance optimization. Background spans SEO, landing page development, data tracking, and multi-channel campaign execution. Strong English writing. Bias for action, low tolerance for vague output.

WORK EXPERIENCE

I-GLOCAL CO., LTD. - VINA PAYROLL OUTSOURCING Jan, 2025 - Now

Digital Marketing Staff

- Built and executed multi-channel campaigns across Facebook, LinkedIn, YouTube, and the company website - researching what worked, cutting what didn't, and iterating based on data.
- Applied AI tools daily to accelerate content production and reporting - reducing turnaround by ~40% while maintaining quality through manual judgment and fact-checking of all AI output.
- Developed repeatable content and SEO playbooks for the product website - architecture, landing pages, technical SEO (schema, sitemap, Core Web Vitals) - contributing to 200%+ organic traffic growth within 6 months.
- Tracked campaign performance weekly via GA4, Microsoft Clarity, and Meta Business Suite - identified patterns, flagged underperformers, and proposed concrete improvements to strategy.
- Conducted ongoing competitor and market research to identify content gaps and positioning opportunities - translated findings into actionable briefs for content and design teams.
- Produced high-quality content end-to-end: SEO articles, landing page copy, ad creatives, social posts - wrote, edited, and verified all output before publishing.
